The Learner is also required to participate in 120 hours of work experience organised by training staff. TPG Training tries to organise a work placement near your home.

The unit HLTAID003 Provide first aid is delivered as part of the Ageing Certificate and is in addition to the 36 days mentioned above. Face to face training is delivered over one day and Learners are required to attend training at TPG Training's Kingsley facility. They are also required to complete 8 hours of pre-reading.

The first aid unit's delivery method can be adjusted to include all training and pre-reading requirements in a supervised environment over two days as required by the learner and agreed with the trainer.

A range of First Aid training dates will be offered to you to attend and you must have a current First Aid Certificate before you can commence the work placement component of the course. First Aid Training is normally offered monthly.

PRE-REQUISITES

Due to the nature of some of the tasks that are expected to be undertaken, both in the classroom, and in the industry in general, prospective learners are expected to have a working knowledge of the English language. It is expected that all learners will have a minimum reading and writing skill at Year 10 education level and ACSF Level 2 in writing and numeracy.

For prospective learners from a Cultural or Linguistic Background (CALD) the following reading and writing pre-requisites apply:

- an IELTS score of at least 5 in each of the 4 components of the test, and/or
- a Certificate III in English.

POLICE CLEARANCE

People working in the Aged Care Industry are required to hold a satisfactory¹ police clearance. If the learner does not currently hold a police clearance you must produce one (or a certified copy) prior to participating in a work placement.

The learner can apply either online or at a Post Office. There is a cost (which is not included in the cost course) for this.

If a prospective learner was a citizen or permanent resident of a country other than Australia after the age of 16, they are required to produce a Statutory Declaration advising of their places of residence prior to the commencement of training.

ASSESSMENTS

A prospective learner is also expected to complete a number of assessments for each training module throughout the term of the course. The nature of the assessments is documented in the booklet associated with each module.

All units are assessed using competency based methods. The learner will be assessed in at least two different ways (modes) for each unit of competency.

The modes of assessments may include:

- Practical demonstration and simulations
- Research project/s
- Knowledge based tests (Formative Assessments and Written Questions)
- Direct observations and verbal questioning (Oral Questions)
- Portfolio of evidence
- Case study

¹ Persons who are precluded from becoming a staff member or an unsupervised volunteer are those whose police certificate/check (or statutory declaration where applicable) record that they have been convicted of murder or sexual assault, or convicted of and sentenced to imprisonment for any other form of assault.

MAKE-UP CLASSES/STUDY GROUP

If a learner misses a session, that session must be attended at a later date. Learners are welcome to re-attend (free of charge) any session that they feel may benefit them during the course qualification period.

TPG Training offers one-on-one support for learners at no extra cost. Please contact your trainer for further information relating to this support.

TIME COMMITMENT

It is expected that for every hour of class contact time that prospective learners will need to complete self study time as outlined in your training plan of approximately 8 hours per week.

COMPLETION OF COURSE

If for any reason a learner is unable to complete all training sessions within the course timeframe TPG Training will offer the learner the option of attending the missed sessions on the following course.

If the learner is not able to complete all units of competency (which is required to gain the qualification) you will be issued with a Statement of Attainment for each unit you have achieved competency in.

FEES AND CHARGES

In October 2019 the Western Australian Premier and Minister for Education and Training announced the introduction of the Lower fees, local skills initiative. Through the initiative the State Government have reduced course fees to half price for 34 target vocational education and training qualifications from 1 January 2020 to 31 December 2021.

The following tuition fees are applicable and include a $90 resource fee. A health care card must be presented to support the request for the private concession fee.

|-------------|----------|
| Private | $923.40 |
| Traineeship | $923.40 |
| Concession | $273.60 |

Tuition fees are indicative only and are subject to change given individual circumstances at enrolment. Additional fees may apply such as student service and other resource fees.

A learner's enrolment is not complete until statutory and RTO based fees and charges have been paid, deferred or installment payment arrangements organised.

Police Clearance – The learner will need to pay for a Police Clearance, if not already held. This cost is not included in the above course costs.

PRIOR TO COMMENCEMENT

All learners will be required to meet with the trainer and participate in an Induction Session during which time you will complete an Enrolment Form.

A deposit of $100 (course fees) and a National Police Clearance or proof of application for a National Police Clearance must be provided prior to commencement of the course.

PRIOR TO THE COMMENCEMENT OF WORK PLACEMENT

Prior to the commencement of work placement, the learner must have

- completed all training and delivery sessions
- submitted all written assessments (except for the project)
- successfully completed all oral assessments
- successfully completed all simulation assessments
- a current Police Clearance (not less than six months old) and current First Aid certificate
- completed course payment.

RECOGNITION OF PRIOR LEARNING/NATIONAL RECOGNITION

TPG Training recognises National Recognised Training Qualifications and Statements of Attainment issued by other Registered Training Organisations (RTOs) where applicable.

Learners may apply for the Recognition of Prior Learning (RPL) for any employment and or study related to units of competency stated in the Certificate schedule.

An Application for Recognition of Prior Learning Form is available from our training staff. There is a fee for processing RPL applications. Please discuss this with us prior to enrolling.

VENUE

Training is delivered at the offices of TPG Training Pty Ltd., located at TPG Aged Care Offices at 121 Moolanda Boulevard, Kingsley. There is ample on-site parking and is close to bus/train services.

PRACTICAL DAYS

Several sessions of the course have a practical component to them and these normally involve some lifting and physical activity. If you have an ailment, injury or condition that may prevent you from completing the practical tasks, please advise the trainer of your incapacity. Closed in shoes are required for training on these days.

WHAT TO WEAR - PARKING - MOBILE PHONES - MESSAGES

- All learners are requested to dress in neat, comfortable, casual attire.
- Closed in shoes are required for Practical Training Days
- Mobile phones must be switched off while training is in progress
- Messages may be left for learners on: 9408 1100

REFUNDS

Refunds shall only be made in relation to the Learner ceasing or withdrawing from the training program or where TPG Training cancels the program. Fees paid for training programs shall be refundable in the following circumstances:

- a cancellation by a Learner, in writing, received a minimum of ten (10) working days prior to commencement shall lead to a full refund,
- a cancellation by a Learner, in writing, received a minimum of two (2) working days prior to commencement shall lead to a full refund, less a 10% administration fee
- where a program is cancelled by TPG Training a full refund shall be provided

An administration fee of 10% of the fees paid will be charged if a cancellation is received between two (2) and nine (9) working days prior to commencement of the course (i.e. 10% of $100 = $10).

There is no refund for fees paid for training courses if a cancellation is received less than two (2) working days prior to the commencement of the course. A minimum of four (4) learners are required before a course can be scheduled.
